The oldest olive

If you want to shake things up and encourage your team's cooperation and healthy competition, then the Little Secrets of the Great Island programme is just the thing you have been looking for.

This programme includes all must-see attractions of the island such as Stara maslina (the old olive tree), the photo exhibition and our very own island chatterbox, Koki the Parrot. The participants, divided into guided groups, have to locate and photograph as many as possible attractions on the task list. Each photographed item is scored and the group with the most points wins. highest score is the winner. Search for hidden locations on the island and capture Brijuni hidden treasure through the lens. Find the headless Roman statue or the soldier in "The Dance of the Dead" mural. Locate the French aristocrat secretly playing golf on the Brijuni Islands or take a selfie with Queen Elizabeth.

If you wish to encourage teamwork, but also unleash your employees' full potential, then the Adriatic Games programme, which includes a variety of traditional folk sports games, is a great place to start.

Kayak tour

Combining physical activity with knowledge, the tasks mainly celebrate the sea and the life on its shores. Each team is given a task tour schedule. Tasks will be explained by a moderator who will record scores.

The team that completes the most tasks within a certain time limit and achieves the best score is the winner. Are you ready for some rowing? Do you know how to lasso a bollard? What do you know about fishing nets?

Graffiti Masterclass

Get your employees' creative juices flowing with our Graffiti Masterclass programme. The theoretical part of the programme focuses on the history of graffiti art in order to explain how graffiti was established as a legitimate art form.

Given the significant impact graffiti art has had on our popular culture, from music, film and television to fine art, toys and clothing, it is easy to forget its humble beginnings and remarkable evolution.

Participants will make their own sketches and the workshop mentor will give each participant an original outline of their name on a thick A3 paper as a souvenir. This is followed by a graffiti battle between the teams under expert supervision.

MINI FILM FESTIVAL

Film shoot

In order to improve verbal and non-verbal communication in your team, don't miss out on our Mini Film Festival programme.

Just as a literary composition requires more than just reading and writing skills, so do film and video require more than just a basic knowledge of the expressive means of the media too. Film as a medium requires one's own creativity to be aligned with various skills.

Divided into the roles of actors, cameramen, screenwriters, costume designers and other film staff, and equipped with cameras, tripods, clapperboards and other props, the participants are asked to design characters, write a screenplay and find the most attractive locations for shooting a short film.

BUILDING MENSA TIM

NUMBER OF PARTICIPANTS
MIN. 15 | MAKS. 100

Is your team in need of broadening its horizons and learning how to approach challenging situations differently? If your answer is yes, then we suggest you try our Building Mensa Team. The programme is designed as an interesting test of observation, logical intelligence, numerical intelligence and memory.

Mensa training

The benefits of solving riddles and quizzes are twofold. The brain is an organ that thrives on regular exercise, just like other body organs. Think of these exercises as mental aerobics. Regular brain challenges will keep your mind healthy and active, ensure active neural connections, improve mental associations and search pathways, and they can also prevent dementia later in life. What makes our exercises special is that they affect different parts of the brain. They encourage lateral thinking which helps you address problems from several different aspects. Focus on details in the observation test. Visit the facilities and answer the following questions: What colour are the pillows in the Neptun Hotel? What is the name of the building across from the Neptun Hotel? What is the name of the waiter from the Neptune coffee shop? Play our MEMORY GAME and practice the visual observation of your employees or take the TEAM IQ test in which you have to solve a list of logical and numerical questions together.

This programme is suitable for beginners, it is completely safe and it is carried out under the supervision of an alpinism instructor. Show off your skills in swinging over a certain area Tarzan-style. Climb the fisherman's net climbing net which, thanks to its soft rope structure, moves in all directions thus presenting a challenge to climbers. The climbing net is also suitable for less skilled participants as they are all equipped with safety equipment and a rope. Don't miss out on the circus-inspired BIRD ON A WIRE challenge in which a walker, secured with a safety steel rope, has to balance on a thin wire across the "canyon" with a stick in their hand.
